SHOW FEATURES

THE DONNIE SIMPSON WEEKEND SHOW IS A TWO-HOUR WEEKEND SHOW THAT INCLUDES MUSIC AND INTERVIEWS FROM DONNIE'S ARCHIVES. EACH SHOW WILL CENTER AROUND A SPECIFIC MUSIC THEME SUCH AS "BEST BANDS," "BLUE EYED SOUL SINGERS," ETC.

ABOUT THE HOST

Simpson has been called an icon, trailblazer and a media legend. He is the ruling Washington D.C. radio icon, as well as an international television and movie personality. Over his career, which has spanned 50 years, he has entertained listeners from WJLB in Detroit to WKYS and WMMJ in Washington, and on television as host of BET's Video Soul. He is considered one of the nation's first video jockeys. Donnie's consistent No. 1 ratings success and reputation have earned him "Icon" status among his peers and millions of fans worldwide. Donnie says the greatest compliment people give him is when they say "I feel like I know you." He says, "They do know me. I'm the same dude all the time. 24/7, I'm Donnie."

SHOW CAST

TONY PERKINS

TONY PERKINS joined the Radio One family in January 2018, when he reunited with his radio partner DONNIE SIMPSON on the all-new "Donnie Simpson Show." Tony has been part of the Washington, D.C. media scene for over thirty years. In addition to being featured on "The Donnie Simpson Show," Tony is currently the co-anchor of "Get Up DC" on WUSA-TV, weekday mornings from 5 a.m. to 7 a.m.. Tony may be best known for his almost twenty years (total) at Fox 5 as an evening and morning news anchor and as the morning weatherman, and for his stint as the weatherman for nearly seven years on ABC's "Good Morning America." Tony lives in the Washington area with his wife and his son.

RIC CHILL "THE CHILLER"

Born and raised in the DMV, Ric began his radio career at the tender of age of 17 as an intern. Within 8 months he was a weekend on-air personality. In 1995, he was recruited to lead the on-air staff at the first all hip hop/go-go station in the Washington DC market. After a brief stint at WKYS, Ric transitioned into a sports talk show producer, producing shows for the likes of Tony Kornheiser, Doc Walker & Al Koken, as well being the original producer for "The John Thompson Show." Ric re-joined the Radio One family in Washington DC. Ric is the Executive Producer and On-Air Contributor of the Donnie Simpson Show.

HUGGY LOWDOWN "CELEBRITY SNITCH"

Renowned comedian, and radio personality can be heard giving the lighter side of the most pressing news and entertainment happenings of the day.
